KEY FIGURES

THE EBC CONGRESS ...

- Has a history of biennial technical congresses since 1947.
- Attracts 450 to 550 brewing, malting and fermentation professionals from all over Europe, and globally.
- Delegate profiles include brewing and malting technical experts, raw material specialists, quality and laboratory personnel, allied traders in the brewing and associated fields, as well as academics and researchers in the fields of brewing, malting and fermentation sciences.
- The technical and scientific programme includes two and a half days of presentations in approximately 12-15 topical sessions.
- The EBC Congress usually fields over 100 technical posters covering all areas of scientific research.
- Delegates come from 30+ countries.
- There are 40+ exhibition and sponsorship opportunities, including exhibition booths and point of exhibition accessories.
- The EBC is consistently rated as a premium conference for brewing professionals, academic researchers and industry suppliers.
